Ful·fill·ment

/fool'filmənt/ noun

- The satisfaction and financial savings that come from allowing T-Shirt Specialty to distribute goods to multiple, individual, locations on behalf of the corporation.
- The achievement of something desired, promised, or predicted.
- Satisfaction or happiness as a result of fully developing one's abilities or character.

T-Shirt Specialty offers a service called Fulfillment to large companies with multiple locations: Specializing in prompt delivery to hospitals, food franchises, grocery stores, hardware chains and conglomerates requiring small orders of garments, supplied to multiple locations.

Prices are based on the combined volume utilized by all of the outlets.

Inventory is maintained, then shipped in small quantities, to individual stores based upon need.

Orders ship within 72 business hours, Guaranteed!

Place an order for a new hire on Monday, have them in uniform by the time they start on Friday!

How Fulfillment Works:

- Corporate purchasing receives pricing based on overall annual volume of goods needed.
- Individual locations requiring small orders are given volume pricing.
- T-Shirt Specialty prints, embroiders and inventories goods.
- Merchandise may be ordered through corporate, or directly from individual locations.
- T-Shirt Specialty fulfills orders from stock and ships to individual locations within 72 hours.
- Inventory is monitored by T-Shirt Specialty, and re-printed or embroidered as needed.
- Invoices can be billed to individual locations or to corporate as desired.

Large Order Pricing, Individual Service, Fast Turn Around Time

Increase your business profits!

- Corporations no longer need to order in large quantities to qualify for volume pricing!
- Cash flow is increased since capital isn't tied up in inventory!
- Each store, restaurant or outlet gets large volume pricing regardless of order size!
- Labor is saved since the corporation no longer needs to pay employees to order, pick, pack, ship and track individual orders!
